This matter is before the Court on the consent motion of the United States for a scheduling order in which the United States and the seven above-captioned defendants, through counsel, propose a pre-trial schedule for this matter. Due to the complexity of the case and the apparently large amount of discovery, as well as the complex matters surrounding the production of discovery in this matter, the Court concludes that the ends of justice served by continuing this matter outweigh the best interest of the public and defendants in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(ii). In accordance with the jointly proposed schedule, the deadlines in this matter SHALL BE:
